Grant Readiness Checklist:

Know If You Qualify Before You Apply

Are You Truly Ready to Win? Let's Find Out.

Most Businesses Waste Their First Shot at a Grant. You Won't.

You know what happens when businesses apply for grants the wrong way? They get ignored. Over and over.

It's not because they aren't hardworking.
It's not because they don't qualify.
It's because they treat grants like free money.

Grants are investments, not charity. They go to businesses that prove impact, scalability, and execution. That's exactly how Chioma Ifeanyi-Eze secured $100K for her e-school. She didn't beg. She didn't write a sob story. She positioned her business as an opportunity grant committees couldn't refuse.

That's what this checklist is going to help you do.

If you check YES to every item below, you are ready.

If you check NO to most, your application is a waste of time.

Want expert guidance? Have questions? Need a personalized strategy? We've got you. Email us at moniepedia@gmail.com. Or visit Moniepedia.com for deeper strategies.

Got a question or need help?

Contact Us: moniepedia@gmail.com

GRANT READINESS CHECKLIST

Don't Just Apply. Apply to Win.

Pre-Application Readiness
☐ Do you fully understand the grant's funding criteria? (If not, STOP.
You already lost.)
\square Is your business actually eligible? (Check industry, size, revenue stage, and location.)
\square Have you studied past winners? (What did they pitch? What made them stand out?)
☐ Can you explain your business in one clear, compelling sentence?
(No fluff, just results.)
Business Positioning & Proof \square Do you have a well-structured business plan? (With clear revenue, expenses, and growth projections.)
□ Do you have real impact metrics? (Not just 'I need money'—actual numbers that prove results.)
☐ Can you show traction? (Customers, revenue, partnerships, testimonials?)
\square Have you secured other funding sources? (Bootstrapped, loans, investors? Grantors love businesses with skin in the game.)

Got a question or need help?

Contact Us: moniepedia@gmail.com

Your Grant Pitch (Make It Ir	npossible to Say Noj
☐ Have you structured your (Grants go to businesses tha	r pitch as an investment, not a favor? t create measurable impact.)
	ar, scalable solution? (Not just "I want will train 500 youths and generate 40%
job growth.")	will train 500 youth's and generate 40%
\Box Does your application should be in 6 months? 12 months? 2 y	ow a timeline of impact? (What happens ears?)
☐ Have you anticipated and committees love smart risk m	l addressed potential risks? (Grant nanagement.)
☐ Did you tailor your applic (Make them see you as the p	cation to match the grantor's mission? erfect match.)
Application Submission & F	Follow-Up
☐ Did you answer every que	estion directly and concisely? (No fluff. No unnecessary details.)
$\hfill\Box$ Did you get an expert to	review your proposal? (Winning grants is a science. One mistake can co	ost you.)
$\hfill\Box$ Did you submit on time?	(Grant committees don't care about excuses.)
$\hfill\Box$ Do you have a follow-up	plan? (Some grants allow pitch presentations—are you ready	/ ?)

Got a question or need help?

Contact Us: moniepedia@gmail.com

X If You Checked 'No' to Most of These, You're Not Ready.

Stop blindly applying. Fix your approach.

- Want expert guidance on writing a grant-winning proposal?
- Need help structuring your pitch like a pro?
- Want all the DFY (Done for You) templates to get these done?
- Want direct feedback before you submit?

We can help.

Email us at moniepedia@gmail.com for FREE expert help. Or visit Moniepedia.com for top-tier funding strategies.

Your grant success starts here. Apply smart. Win big.

Got a question or need help?

Contact Us: moniepedia@gmail.com